

Sudden Death Of Westerly Woman

Mrs. Edwin Barber Expires While Preparing For Supper at Methodist Church—Carl J. Nordell Awarded Honors at Corcoran Art Gallery—L. Irving Maxson and Family Sailing For Isle of Pines—Charles E. Merritt Dead.

Mrs. Edwin Barber died suddenly of heart failure late Monday afternoon in Gloucester Methodist church, in which church she was a zealous member and active worker. When death came she was preparing for the supper to be given by the Ladies Aid society and seemed to be in her usual good health to the very last moment of her life. Besides her husband she is survived by a son and daughter.

Carl J. Nordell, a former Westerly boy, now of Boston, and still under 35, is gradually reaching the front rank of artists, in fact, is already making time with them, in spite of the drawbacks of his youthful days, he being the son of poor parents and one of a large family. His adaptability for the art was displayed in childhood, and, after a course of study in the public schools, he became a student in the Rhode Island School of Design and later was enabled to study abroad. His work has been admired wherever exhibited, the merit recognized by art critics, and young Nordell has won many competitive prizes.

He received added distinction Saturday when the list of awards was made public for the fourth exhibition of contemporary American oil paintings at the Corcoran art gallery in Washington. He was awarded the fourth W. A. Clark prize, $500, and the Corcoran honorable mention certificate for his painting "Pensive Nue." The jury was composed of Carl Melchers, Welmer, Germany; Ben Foster of New York; W. Elmer Schofield of New York; Frank W. Benson of Salem, Mass.; and Richard M. Brooke of Washington. President Taft will attend a private view of the exhibit on Dec. 16. It will be open to the public the following day and continue until Jan. 26, 1913.

Wind and weather permitting, the three-masted schooner Ronald of Bridgewater, will sail from Bristol on Tuesday morning under charter of L. Irving Maxson of Westerly direct to the Isle of Pines, in the West Indies, about 80 miles south of Havana. Mr. Maxson and family will locate there and they took passage on the Ronald. The party is made up of Mr. and Mrs. Maxson, L. Irving Maxson, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gwin. Mr. Maxson was born in Westerly and has always resided here and up to two years ago was engaged in the building and lumber business, succeeding his father, who conducted business for many years in the plant now operated by the Isaac Sherman company in West Broad street. He is now president of the Isle of Pines company that is backed by American capital. Mr. Maxson is to manage the business of the company in the Isle of Pines. The company will engage in the cultivation of pineapples, grapefruit and other fruits that yield substantial profits. Mr. Maxson visited the household effects of the Maxson family have been preparing for shipment and safely crated. The Ronald will carry a varied cargo. In addition to the household goods, there has been placed aboard the vessel cows, chickens, ducks, automobiles, carriages, wagons, steam and gasoline engines, farming utensils of every description, as Mr. Maxson is to engage in the fruit business on a large scale. With favorable weather the Ronald should reach its destination in 22 days.

Charles Edward Merritt of Ashaway died Sunday morning in his 80th year. He was the son of Samuel Merritt, who was named for his grandfather and had a long line of honorable ancestry. His first wife was Matilda Greene, daughter of Rev. John Greene, a Seventh-day Baptist minister, and Mr. Merritt was a conscientious member of that denomination. By his first wife he had two sons, who reside in Atlanta, Ga. Both arrived in Ashaway when he was a young man. His second wife was Miss Louisa Austin. Besides the widow and two sons, Mr. Merritt leaves a daughter, Mrs. George S. Chamberlain, of Ashaway, and three brothers, William H. of New Bedford and Frank and Samuel Merritt of Groton. His latest employment was in mill work.

Those who renewed their liquor licenses in Westerly are doing business at the old stands and in the same old way, regardless of the outcome of the action of the town council. The council reached, after a careful recount of the ballots, that the electors had voted in favor of license. The case has been heard in the supreme court upon a writ of certiorari and the decision is awaited with much interest, as upon the decision will depend the continuance or discontinuance of the legalized sale of intoxicating liquors in the town of Westerly for two years. The two new applicants who have been granted liquor licenses are in the doldrums and will not incur the expense of fitting up saloon and engaging in business until assured by the supreme court that the town of Westerly is in the license column.

Frederick Martin, formerly of Westerly, and whose mother, brothers and sister still reside here, is one of the very best oratorio bass singers in the United States. Mr. Martin has been engaged as soloist by the celebrated Handel and Haydn society of Boston for the oratorio "The Messiah" Dec. 22. Mr. Martin is also engaged for the miscellaneous concert of the society Feb. 9. Mr. Martin has sang on several occasions in his old home town for the pleasure of many friends and acquaintances.

Justice of the Peace Warren C. Randall is proud of the distinction of defeating a full-fledged lawyer at the law game. There was a case against Martin L. Babcock, a civil action of book account brought by the H. T. Ketchum company by Attorney Clarence E. Roche before Justice of the Peace William A. Wilcox in Pawcatuck Monday. Mr. Babcock, not a lawyer, appeared for defendant. He entered a plea in abatement on the ground that inasmuch as the writ was issued in Rhode Island it was without the jurisdiction of the justice court in Connecticut. The plea was sustained and the writ was quashed.

Local Luncheon. William A. Wilcox has sold to Mrs. Phoebe M. Nash the house lot in West Broad street, formerly owned by the late Carey A. Main.

Dr. Michael H. Scanlon was 37 years old yesterday and the few of his many friends who had knowledge of the anniversary extended congratulations. Funeral services for Mrs. Jane E. Crandall, who was Westerly's only pensioner, widow of Jonathan Crandall, a former chief of police, were held at her home in Dixon street Sunday afternoon. Rev. J. W. Ford officiated. Burial was in River bend cemetery. The bearers were Carl E. Burdick, Eugene R. Pendleton, Charles H. Pendleton and J. Herbert Segar.

COLCHESTER Crowd at Moving Picture Show—Steam Shovel Shipped to Lisbon.

A large crowd attended the moving picture show in Grange hall Saturday evening. The feature picture of the evening was entitled "When Uncle Sam Was Young, in two reels, and was historical of the early times in the United States. The other reels and the illustrated songs were excellent. A social dance was held after the show.

SEE IF YOUR CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED. If Cross, Fervid, Bilious Give Delicous "Syrup of Figs" to Cleanse It's Little Bowels.

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated it is a sure sign that your little one's intestines, the stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels are clogged up with purifying waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When your child is listless, drooping, pale, doesn't sleep soundly or eat heartily or is cross, irritable, feverish, stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, or is full of cold, give a few drops of Syrup of Figs, and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you surely will have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly. With Syrup of Figs you are not hurting your children, being composed entirely of delicious figs, senna and aromatic it cannot be harmful, besides they dearly love its delicious taste. Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed. A little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package. Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delictious, cleansing, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

Foils a Foul Plot. When a shameful plot exists between liver and bowels to cause distress by refusing to act, take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and end such abuse of your system. They gently compel right action of stomach, liver and bowels, and restore your health and all good feelings. 25c at The Lee & Osgood Co.

Largest Producer of Glass Sand. Pennsylvania produces 30 per cent. of the sand used in glassmaking in the United States—about 400,000 tons. The average value of glass sand in Pennsylvania, according to the United States geological survey, is $1.49 a ton.

MOST SICKNESS COMES FROM WEAK, INACTIVE KIDNEYS

Recent Reports Show Hundreds Suffer With Kidney Troubles and Don't Know It.

There are scores of nervous, tired, run-down people throughout the city suffering with pains in the back and sides, dizzy spells, weakness of the bladder (frequently causing annoyance at night), who fail to realize the seriousness of their troubles until such conditions as chronic rheumatism, bladder trouble, dropsy, diabetes or even Bright's disease result.

All this is due to weak, inactive kidneys. The kidneys are the filters of the blood, and no one can be well and healthy unless the kidneys work properly. It is even more important than that the bowels move regularly.

If you suffer with such symptoms don't neglect yourself another day and run the risk of serious complications. Secure an original package of the new discovery, Croxone, which costs but a trifle, and commence its use. A few doses you will be surprised how differently you will feel. Croxone cures the worst cases of kidney, bladder trouble and rheumatism, because it removes the cause, kills, tablets and other remedies, merely give temporary relief at the best. Croxone cleans out the kidneys and makes them filter out all the poisonous waste matter and uric acid that lodge in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; soothes and heals the bladder, and quickly effects a permanent, positive, lasting cure. You will find Croxone different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It matters not how old you are or how long you have suffered, if it is prepared the way it is, it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results.

You can secure an original package of Croxone from any first class druggist, such as The Lee & Osgood Co., who will personally return the purchase price, if it fails to give the desired results the very first time you use it.
